Dedication

Great Spirit of Peace, holy vision of perfect harmony among men, we come at last to release thee from the bonds of ignorance, hatred and intolerance which down through the ages have held thee bleeding at heart but hopeful in spirit. We come to break those cruel chains and to glorify thy name with self-control, love, and understanding.

To thy spirit, then, O Peace, we dedicate this, our "Aurora", that thy vision, with all its promises of eternal happiness, may be discerned in the glorious morning light as it melts the darkness hanging over the earth and gives birth to a new day.

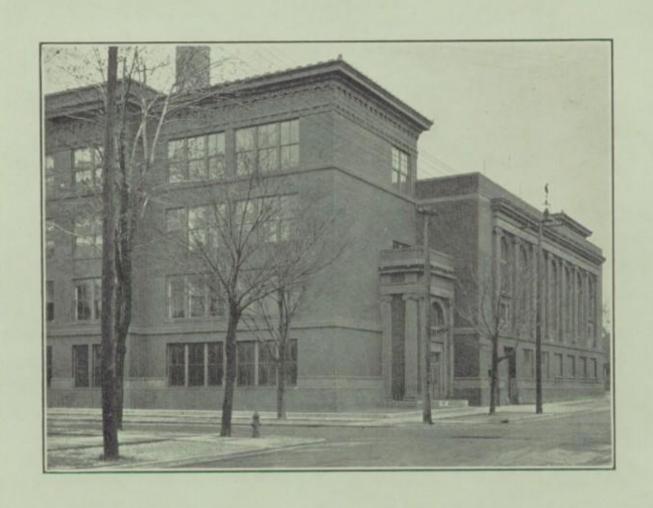

Silent thou dost stand—
And yet within thy massive frame
Youth's throbbing heart,
With love and hope and friendship,
Dost hold a joyous reign.

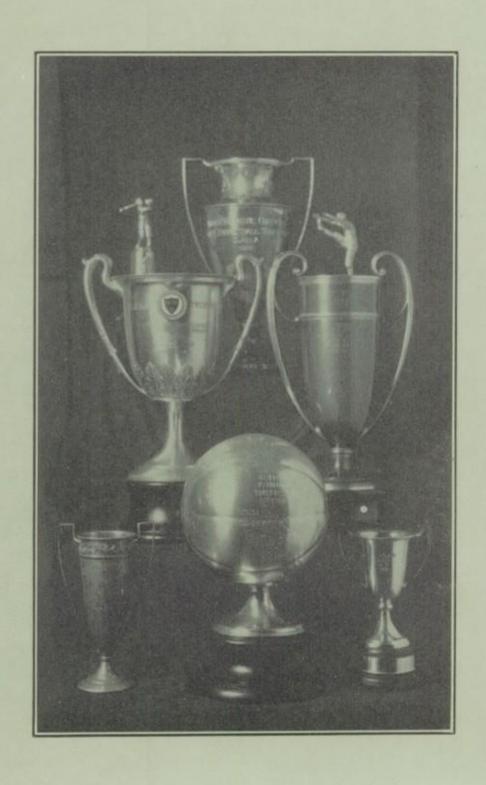

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom

And the man that getteth understanding;

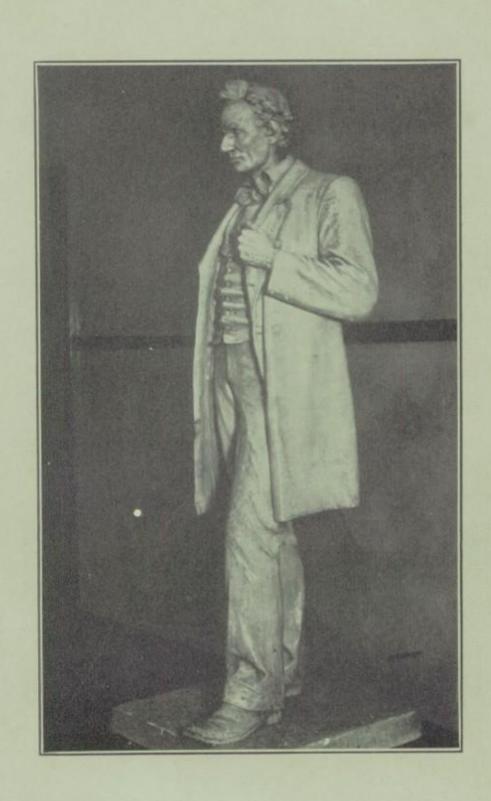

Her ways are ways of pleasantness,

And all her paths are peace.

-Proverbs.

Victory's shining silver tokens, Oft reflecting memories dear, Won in friendly competition, Loved and honored year by year.

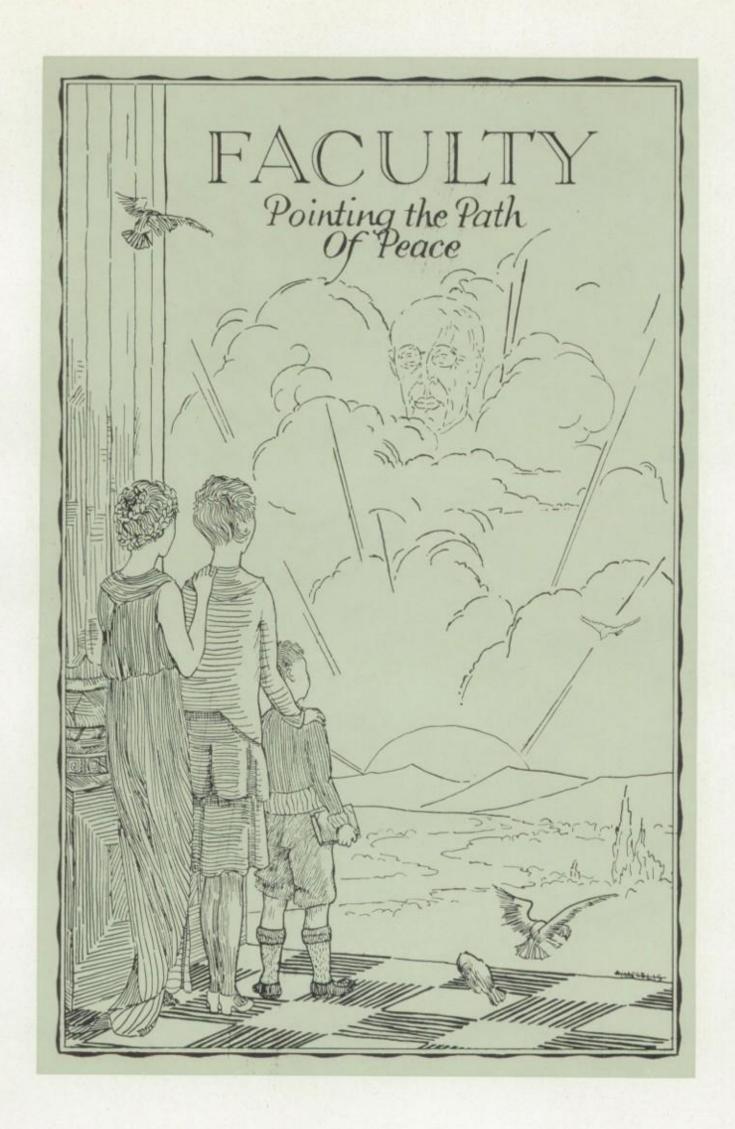

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in."

HE that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit, than he that taketh a city.

HE that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

-Proverbs

Administration

UNION High School during the 1928-29 school year sought to encourage better citizenship and scholastic proficiency. Special emphasis was placed upon the students' conduct in school, and every effort was put forth to secure better cooperation among the students in their scholastic and social activities.

The total enrollment at Union in March, 1929 was 1,825 students. This was an increase of 100 students over March, 1928. The junior high had an attendance of 881, and the senior high an attendance of 944 in the current year.

A new method for grading students was instituted this year. In addition to the regular marks of A, B, C, D, and E, citizenship marks were also given, these being represented by the figures 1, 2, 3, and 4, the figure 1 representing excellent citizenship, that is very best effort; 2, good citizenship or effort in right direction; 3, fair citizenship or need for improvement; and 4, poor citizenship, definite lack of interest.

Miss Marie Neuman, supervisor of the lunch room, was granted leave of absence for study at the University of Chicago. Miss Olga Pershbacker was also given leave of absence for study at Columbia University. Miss Elizabeth Perrin returned the second semester after spending the first semester in study at Columbia University. Mrs. Jeannette Brumbaugh was transferred from Union to Vocational and Technical High School. Miss Elsa Schreiber resigned to accept a position in the English department at Hillyard High School, Spokane, Washington. Mr. Lambert Neimeyer also resigned. Miss Dorothy Jane Farr was given leave of absence the second semester for study at the University of Michigan.

New teachers for the year were as follows: Miss Doris Bishop, English; Miss Esther Eby, English; Mr. Fred Bailey, science; Miss Elizabeth DeJonge, English; Mr. Sherman Serff, manual arts; Miss Neva Lewis, household arts; Mr. Richard L. Marousek, English; Miss Lucille Dunn, English. Miss Lois Richards returned and resumed her duties as instructor in music in the junior high school.

Union High School held the year's record in the number of assemblies given by the high schools of the city. Many prominent speakers spoke before the students during the year. Among those were the following: the late Captain Charles E. Belknap, Edward James Cattell, Dr. Hilton Ira Jones, Dean Charles E. Jackson, Ross E. Farra, Paul Goebel, Charles Paddock of Olympic renown, Ralph P. Robinson, Dr. Wm. R. Vis, Walter Hastings, Ben East, Lemuel Hillman, Harry Kelly, Mr. Alahibaksh, E. E. Ebersole, E. C. Walcott, Dr. Stanley Krebs, and Lieutenant Donald E. Keyhoe, who accompanied Colonel Charles Lindbergh on his good will tour.

The Senior Play

ALL of the glory and beauty of the aristocratic, ante-bellum South forms the background for Winston Churchill's drama, "The Crisis" which was presented by the senior class on May 16 and 17 under the direction of Mr. Stanley Albers. The plot centers around the old question of slavery, with the determination of the South to keep it, and the efforts of the North to abolish it.

Wilma Verlee was excellent as Virginia Carvel, the proud southern beauty who tries unsuccessfully to kill her love for the young Yankee who comes to work in the office of her uncle, Judge Whipple, and who stands for every ideal antagonistic to Virginia. Harvey Andree filled the role of Stephen Brice, the young Yankee, very successfully.

Judge Whipple was played by John Lane, and Colonel Carvel by George Hoffer. Both are experienced amateur actors, and played their parts well. Clarence Colfax, a dashing young Southerner, and Eliphalet Hooper, a man whose god is money, are both in love with the fair Virginia. These roles were filled commendably by Arthur Bomers and Nelson Veltman. Other characters were Doris Moline as Puss Russell, Lloyd Hughes as Josephus, Abe De Korte as Ephum, and Donald Lillie, Art Veenstra, Henry Content, Chester Mikulski, Al Margelis, Effi Jarvi, Violet Obermeyer, Elsie Samrick, Marian Anderson, and Wanda Falarski.

Boys from the glee club sang plantation songs and battle hymns. The dancing was directed by Helen Gillaspy, and the drummer for the martial scenes was Lester Middleton. The stage manager was Henry Sonneveldt assisted by Elwood Hansen, Tom Hook, and Bob Gustafson. Walter Godlewski was property manager.

Class Day Peace Pageant THE PACT OF PARIS

Characters:

Fifteen girls to represent the countries named in the Treaty preamble. Fifteen boys to represent the plenipotentiaries of the countries signatory to the Treaty.

Remaining members of the Class of 1929.

Prolog:

Our class is graduating in an epochal year. The year 1929 is witnessing the greatest stride that has yet been taken toward universal peace in the history of human progress. The Kellogg-Briand Peace Pact, one of the most momentous documents ever formulated by mankind, is being ratified this year. To date, all the original signatories except Japan have already sent to our government at Washington their acceptances. When this one nation shall have sent in her ratification, this important treaty will go into effect, and the world should see the dawn of a new era.

Every year since the world began there have been leaders who have advocated peace. As far back as the 16th and 17th centuries far-sighted men like Thomas Moore and Hugo Grotius saw through the darkness of an illiterate, war-mad world into the light of a world ruled by the spirit of peace. But greater than the teachings of any human leader has been the spirit of Democracy which is the foundation for peace.

Our American democracy in its progress has engaged in six wars, each fought for a definite purpose; yet the result of each could have been achieved by peaceful methods had the eyes of the world been open. Since the price of our democratic education has been so costly, we must strive to hold sacred the freedom thus gained. Our boys who fought in the World War came from homes to which this democracy had given peace. They gave their lives that other nations might gain that same blessing.

Their sacrifice appears to have created a spiritual force, working in the minds of mankind; for, since the signing of the Armistice in 1918, there has been a distinct trend toward peaceful arbitration and friendly settlement of disputes that arise in this "imperfect world". Many nations are attempting to further the spirit of international brotherhood by strengthening good will ties. Our own Woodrow Wilson was the pioneer of this movement in his League of Nations theory. The greatest modern ambassador of good will is Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, the intrepid aviator, who through his good will flights spread friendship among many nations of the earth, and did more toward establishing brotherly love in the hearts of mankind than any treaty ever written. President Hoover in his international tour followed in the foot-steps of that modest American youth and tied the bonds of friendship even tighter.

Our country, moreover, is not the only advocate of world wide peace; England, France, Germany, Belgium, Japan—in fact, all the nations are heralding the coming of peace on earth by deeds of human friendliness.

Nations are educating their youth to walk in the paths of peace. In 1927, at the suggestion of the Committee on World Friendship among Children, American Children sent almost 13,000 dolls, messengers of friendship, to the children of Japan to become a permanent part of their famous annual Girls' Doll Festival. The far reaching influence of this act of good will can be seen in the report of our American ambassador to Japan. "The effect of the doll messengers to Japan was very profound", he wrote. "The project was one of the most valuable expressions of good feeling that I have ever met." In 1928 Japan reciprocated by sending to us a royal gift of 58 beautiful Japanese Doll Ambassadors of Good Will. A hundred years from now when nations will be living together as friends and brothers, people will look back to the day when children of these two nations sealed with silent messengers this beautiful bond of friendship.

Daily our news sheets report gestures of friendship from various nations. Even now Belgium's royal symphonic band is touring this country on a musical good will mission. Last September Great Britain sent fourteen prominent editors—Pilgrims of the Press—to the United States to promote good will and understanding between American and British peoples.

Behind these good will gestures is the work of the League of Nations and the World Court. Since its organization on June 10, 1920, the League of Nations has been functioning continuously, furthering arbitration as a means for the settlement of disputes, bettering sanitary and laboring conditions of the world, yet never forgetting that its chief aim is ultimate disarmament. Although America belongs neither to the League of Nations nor to the World Court, the nations belonging have elected an American, Charles Edward Hughes, to sit on the court in recognition of America's work for world wide peace.

During our high school course our class has been led to realize the significance of this great movement, and we have made it the theme of all our activities. Our senior play, "The Crisis", a Civil War drama, though portraying war fought for noble ends, nevertheless portrays war as a means to peace. Today the world has come to see that even such a dispute as that between our North and South should have been settled without the shedding of precious human blood.

The theme of our "Aurora", also, is peace; indeed, we have dedicated our yearbook, not to any individual, but to the Spirit of Peace in the words, "To Thy Spirit, O Peace, we dedicate this, our 'Aurora', that thy vision with all its promises of eternal happiness may be discerned in the glorious morning light as it melts the darkness hanging over the earth and gives birth to a new day."

Finally, for our Class Day, honoring you, our parents, teachers, and friends, we shall present in dramatic form the signing of the Kellogg-Briand Peace Pact, a pact which we feel to be the last milestone on the path of peace erected by your generation; on this, as a mighty foundation, our generation must build a glorious Palace of Peace, the future home of all mankind.

Invocation to the Spirit of Peace

Great Spirit of Peace! Holy Guardian of the Happiness of Men! Down Time's path that leads from eternity to eternity Thy voice has resounded, ever calling, ever pleading With us, thy children, to comprehend the meaning Of thy vision of "Peace on earth."

Now we come before thy altar, chastened in spirit, Humbled in heart, with offerings in our hands; Offerings withheld for centuries through stubborn ignorance, Offerings that with bleeding heart thou didst plead with us to give, Offerings that now come forth from a new understanding.

Our dead have called to us with trumpet sounds That roll forth from the everlasting tomb, And they have asked of us to give them proof That they, our heroes, have not died in vain.

To them we dedicate this day
That holds within its fold . . . a promise;
A promise that shall be a monument
To the ideals of a nobler world.

We pledge thee that all nations of the earth, In solemn covenant, and with serious intent, Do promise that the precious blood of men Shall nevermore be shed in strife ignoble.

Great Spirit of Peace! Holy Guardian of the Happiness of Nations! The vow we take is honor-bound. It is a test for men! May nations hold this promise sacred ever, That on earth there be peace; to men, good will.

Come forth, ye countries with your banners raised, Come forth, to give your promise sure; Come forth, that all the world may see You stand for Peace Eternal!

These countries, deeply sensible of their solemn duty to promote the welfare of mankind;

Persuaded that the time has come when a frank renunciation of war as an instument of national policy should be made to the end that the peaceful and friendly relations now existing between their peoples may be perpetuated;

Convinced that all changes in their relations with one another should be sought by pacific means and be the result of a peaceful and orderly process; and that any signatory power which shall hereafter seek to promote its national interests by resort to war should be denied the benefits furnished by this treaty;

Hopeful that, encouraged by their example, all the other nations of the world will join in this humane endeavor and by adhering to the present treaty as soon as it comes into force bring their peoples within the scope of its beneficent provisions, thus uniting the civilized nations of the world in a common renunciation of war as an instrument of their national policy;

Have decided to conclude a treaty, and for that purpose have appointed as their respective plenipotentiaries;

The President of the United States of America, the Hon. Frank B. Kellogg, Secretary of State;

The President of the German Reich, Dr. Gustav Stresemann, Minister for Foreign Affairs;

His Majesty the King of the Belgians, M. Paul Hymans, Minister for Foreign Affairs, Minister of State;

The President of the French Republic, M. Aristide Briand, Minister for Foreign Affairs;

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, Emperor of India;

For Great Britain and Northern Ireland and all parts of the British Empire which are not separate members of the League of Nations, the Right Hon. Lord Cushendun, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, Acting Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs;

For the Dominion of Canada, the Right Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie-Kin, Prime Minister and Minister for External Affairs;

For the Commonwealth of Australia, the Hon. Alexander John McLachlen, member of the Executive Federal Council;

For the Dominion of New Zealand, the Hon. Sir Christopher James Parr, High Commissioner for New Zealand in Great Britian;

For the Union of South Africa, the Hon. Jacobus Stephanus Smit, High Commissioner for the Union of South Africa in Great Britain;

For the Irish Free State, Mr. William Thomas Cosgrave, President of the Executive Council of the Irish Free State;

For India, the Right Hon. Lord Cushendun, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, Acting Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs;

His Majesty the King of Italy, Count Gaetano Manzoni, His Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at Paris;

His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, Count Uchida, member of the Privy Council;

The President of the Republic of Poland, Mr. A. Zales, Minister for Foreign Affairs;

The President of the Czecho-slovak Republic, Dr. Eduard Nenes, Minister for Foreign Affairs;

Who having communicated to one another their full powers found in good and due form have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The High Contracting Parties solemnly declare in the names of their respective peoples that they condemn recourse to war for the solution of International controversies, and renounce it as an instrument of national policy in their relations with one another.

ARTICLE II

The High Contracting Parties agree that the settlement or solution of all disputes or conflicts of whatever nature or of whatever origin they may be, which may arise among them, shall never be sought except by pacific means.

ARTICLE III

The present treaty shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties named in the preamble in accordance with their respective constitutional requirements, and shall take effect as between them as soon as all their several instruments of ratification shall have been deposited at Washington.

This treaty shall, when it has come into effect as prescribed in the preceding paragraph, remain open as long as may be necessary for adherence by all the other powers of the world. Every instrument evidencing the adherence of a power shall be deposited at Washington, and the treaty shall immediately upon such deposit become effective as between the power thus adhering and the other parties hereto.

It shall be the duty of the Government of the United States of America to furnish each Government named in the preamble and every Government subsequently adhering to this treaty with a certified copy of the treaty and of every instrument of ratification or adherence. It shall also be the duty of the Government of the United States of America telegraphically to notify such Governments immediately upon the deposit with it of each instrument of ratification or adherence.

In faith whereof the plenipotentiaries have signed this treaty in the French and English languages, both texts having equal force, and hereunto affix their seals.

Done at Paris the twenty-seventh day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.

Class Will

WE, the Senior Class of Union High School of Grand Rapids, county of Kent, state of Michigan, being of sound mind and memory, and also being aware that our exodus from the paths of learning is not far distant, do hereby make our last will and testament. To the faculty we do hereby give and bequeath:

Item: All the good will which it is possible for a body of students to conceive of.

Item: The rooms left desolate by our departure, with a hope that sometime in the distant future they may find another senior class of equal abilities.

Item: The pleasure of lecturing often to our fellow sufferers.

To the Senior Class of 1930 we give the following:

Item: The great responsibility, with its fitting dignity and honor, of becoming Seniors.

Item: The solemn joy of advancing the unstained banner of the glorious red and white.

Item: The right to get out the "Aurora" of 1930.

Item: The privilege of wearing loud spring clothing or to perform any other weak-minded action which would brand you as seniors.

Item: The right to sit in rooms 228 and 225 and look wise.

Item: The duty of answering all questions which the teachers cannot.

To the football team of 1930 we hereby give the following right:

Item: To sing such songs and make such remarks as they desire.

Lastly: We do hereby appoint as executors of this, our last will and testament, and of our estate, the Junior Class of 1930.

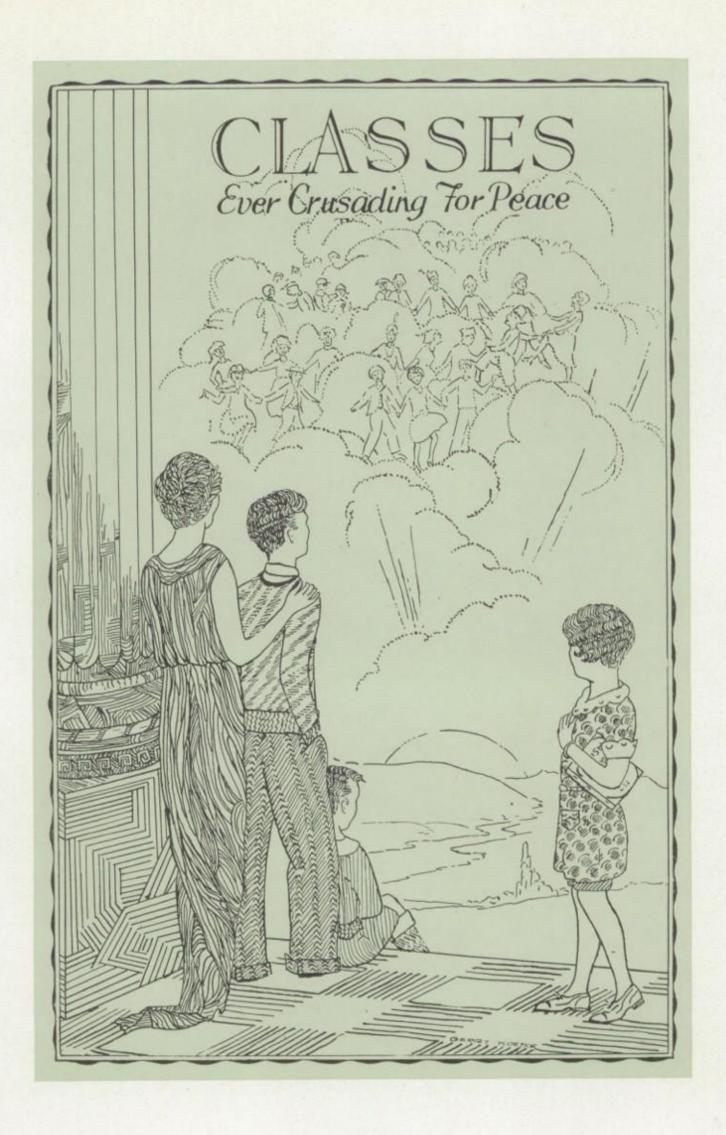

In Witness Whereof, We have hereunto set our hand and seal this twentieth day of June, of the year A.D., one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

Junior Class

The executive officers appointed the following chairmen for various social activities: Entertainment, Helen De Hamer; music, William Luyendyk; program, Fred Gustafson; publicity, Ben Powell; decorations, Charles Rice; favors, Dorothy Rubrecht; refreshments, Dorothy Phillips.

The "Junior Frolic", the first class party of the year, was held in the girls' gymnasium on January 18. The purpose was to get the class members acquainted. About fifty attended and all had an enjoyable time. A potluck supper in April proved popular. The annual party given by the juniors for the seniors took place in the Dillingham Memorial gymnasium on May 10. A large number of faculty, students and alumni attended. Special music, decorations, and favors made the big party of the year especially attractive.

Much of the year's success was due to the adviser, Miss Nelle Atwood and to the assistant class adviser, Miss Lucelia Badgley.

The juniors, as is customary, constituted the staff which took over the publication of the May issue of "The Unionite".

Sophomore Class

THE sophomore class organized November 3 and elected the following officers: President, Laura Cain; Vice-President, Katherine Verhey; Secretary, Helen Ellis; Treasurers, Blanche Cain and William Westburg.

The following committee chairmen were appointed by the president with the help of the executive board: program committee, Sidney Orkin; decorating committee, Howard Zaremba and Edward Ulanowski; publicity committee, Junior Smith and Mary Jadvinskas; booster and membership committee, Bernice Klump; ways and means committee, Inez Grinnel.

The work of the class adviser, Miss Clara B. Smallidge; of the "chef", Miss Elizabeth DeJonge; and the auditor, Miss Clarissa Richardson, was appreciated by all.

Social events of the year began with a big party, at which the decorations were carried out in blue and gold, the class colors. This lively interest was kept up throughout the whole year. January brought forth a skating party which followed a potluck supper. March showed the girls capable of winning at least half of the silver cup at the girls' inter-high class meet, March 13. This is the first sophomore class to get its name on the cup. The sophomore class was also active in selling tickets for "Within the Law." In April it successfully sponsored an all-school party. On May 24 it gave the annual soph-frosh party; and in June, a delightful banquet.

The members of the class responded to every call like regular troopers and did their share to make this the most successful year any sophomore class in this school has known.

Freshman Class

THE freshman class was not organized until the beginning of the second semester when on January 25, about two hundred members of the class met in the auditorium and organized for the ensuing year.

Miss McDermott and Miss Becker, faculty advisers, presided as chairmen and the following officers were elected: president, Clair Powney; vice-president, Marion Devereaux; secretary, Margaret Simms; and treasurer, Robert Beatty. The vice-president appointed the following to act as the social committee: chairman, Jean Liberman, Sidney Hodson, Wilbur Stahr, Maryverne Porter and Lena Romani.

The annual freshman banquet was held April 23. Dancing and games were enjoyed in the girls' gymnasium until 5:30 when a grand march was formed and led to the lunch room where supper was served. Clair Powney presided as toast-master and several members responded to speeches. The table was decorated in the class colors and dainty flower favors were distributed among the guests.

The Annual Freshman-Sophomore party was held in the Dillingham Memorial gymnasium on May 24. The gymnasium was trimmed in spring colors. Goodnatured bantering on the part of both classes added enjoyment to the event.

To arouse the students' interest in paying up dues quickly, the freshmen were divided into two sides, the girls comprising one group, the boys the other, each trying, of course, to collect all the dues for its side and thus win.

The Student Council

"Union's Student Council, an organization made up of session-room representatives who meet one day a week, this year the meetings having been held on Monday the ninth period.

Preceding the annual all-school election held at the beginning of the school year, the candidates for the presidency of the Student Council spoke at assemblies. The honor of being elected to this office was won by Harvey Andree. Other officers chosen were as follows: vice-president, Marian Anderson; secretary, Dorothy Roh; editor, Evered Dudley. Principal C. A. Everest acted as adviser.

The following committees, appointed by the president, worked directly with problems of the student body; activity rating, Paul Redman, chairman; activity planning, Marian Anderson; citizenship, John Lane; safety, Robert Kortlander; suggestion box, Kathryn Simms; thrift, Esther Thomasma; assembly program, Althea Calkins; athletics, Marian Anderson; bulletin board, Dorothy Roh.

A big thing accomplished this year by the Student Council was an attractive new handbook called "Unionites-Your-Guide". A school flag was designed and presented to the school. After-school dances every other Friday were inaugurated. A small admission was charged for these "Sunlight Dances". Members of all classes were invited. Two successful All-school parties were also sponsored, one at the close of the football season, and the other in April. The Student Council also promoted the idea of grading citizenship on report cards.

"The Unionite"

"THE Unionite", the school magazine, under the supervision of Miss Myrtle Heseltine, Victor Matulaitis, editor-in-chief, and Hazel Gotch, associate editor, has just concluded a most successful year, ranking first place in class B, in the contest for high school publications sponsored by Columbia University.

A different theme was carried out in each number, as the "Tip Off" for January, featuring basketball and the new year; and the "Looking Glass" in March, playing up current fads and foibles of the students.

Other new features of the publication were "The Diary of Diane", a humorous character portrayal indirectly giving tips on etiquette; and two pages of editorial on four or five subjects, instead of one page on only two subjects.

Articles on music, such as the origin of Christmas carols, and a page entitled "Musical Dashes by Dot" were added. Articles on science, dramatics, and books were included every month.

The name of the humor department was changed from "Student Gossip" to "Skids and Slips", the entire staff contributing original humor to this department Much more poetry was written for publication also.

Alumni notes and athletics were included in the news department this year. The advertising department also had a very successful year, securing about $600 for advertising. The average circulation was 750 copies an issue.

The surplus money gained from publishing the magazine was used for trips to contests, for gold pins awarded to members of the staff for their services, and fees for entering inter-scholastic publication contests.

Service Squad

To make Union more democratic and to foster a better era of school citizenship the Service Squad, organized four years ago, resumed its duties the second week of school in September. Meetings were held every Monday morning.

Members of the Service Squad assist in governing the school by checking "leave cards," maintaining order in the halls, and supplying information to visitors.

Two other projects were also instituted this year. The first was the creation with the Lost and Found committee of the Student Council. The second was the extension of self-government among the students in session room 234. A Service Squad member had charge of the room each period the teacher had a class.

In March a banquet was held for the members of the organization. Leslie A.

Butler, superintendent of schools, was the principal speaker.

Miss Blanche Mann proved a very capable adviser. She was assisted by the following chairmen: La Vern Manni, Maxine Hiler, Beatrice Smith, Margaret Gravelyn, Seymour Verhey, Ray Best, Inez Grinnell, Julia Urban, Clarence Groggle, Marian Andree, Hazel TenHopen, John Lane, Evered Dudley, Fern Bylsma, and Sadie Samrick.

Harvey Andree was elected general chairman, and Marian Andree chosen secretary for the year.

Hi-Y Club

THE purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

The Union Hi-Y during the past year was the largest and most active Hi-Y group in the city. Many interesting speakers were obtained for the weekly meetings and, through the efforts of Mr. John Van Brook of the Y. M. C. A., speakers of note were brought here to address assemblies. A social meeting and initiation was held once a month at the "Y". Also two joint meetings were held with the Girl Reserves.

In December a comedy, "Nothing but the Truth," was given under the auspices of the Hi-Y. Funds realized at this time defrayed the expense of delegates to the Older Boy's Conference and the support of a Korean boy in high school. In June a loving cup was presented to the outstanding all-round senior boy. To the school was presented at the same time a larger cup on which is to be engraved each year the name of the honored graduate receiving this Hi-Y award.

The officers for the first semester were: president, Henry Deurloo; vice-president, Robert Irwin; secretary, Harry Wesslund; treasurer, Phillip Ferry; program chairman, Don Wieland; publicity chairman, Henry Sonneveldt.

Officers for the second semester were: president, Francis Newton; vice-president, Phillip Ferry; secretary, Don Wieland; treasurer, Seymour Verhey; program chairman, Clarence Groggle.

Appreciation is due Mr. Reuben S. Smith, faculty adviser, and the boys' work secretary, Mr. John Van Brook, for the Christian fellowship they instilled in the organization.

Dramatics

DRAWING large audiences for three evenings, "Within the Law" was the last play for the year staged by the dramatics department. This play had a very large cast, containing twenty-one members in all. These actors were selected from the dramatics classes of both evening and the day school. All important roles were played by students experienced in acting, the leads being taken by Tony Lampani and Grace Lee. This play was the first, in the history of Union High School, staged for three evenings.

Two other plays were presented during the year. The first, a mystery play called "The Thirteenth Chair," was given by the day school classes, who did some creditable acting. As the thrills in this play were numerous, an unusually widespread interest was aroused in the dramatics activities at Union.

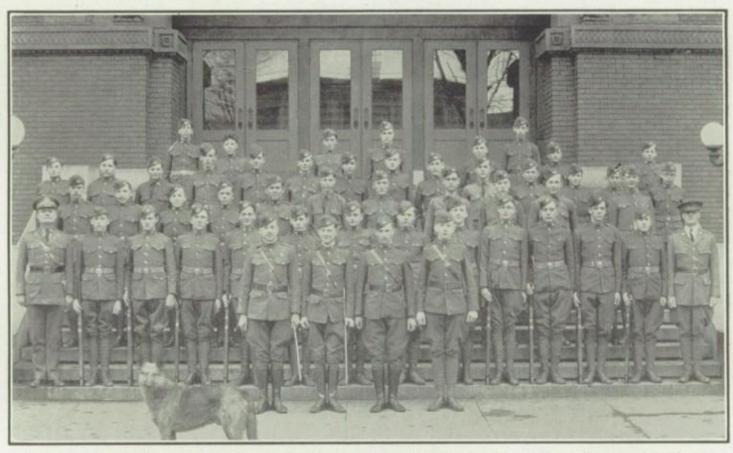

In the interim between the production of "The Thirteenth Chair" and "Within the Law," a farcical-comedy "Nothing but the Truth" was presented by the evening school under the auspices of the Union Hi-Y. Theressa Pakter and Tony Lampani took the leading parts in this production.

Much of the year's success in dramatics was due to Mr. Stanley Albers, who is becoming well known as a director of school plays.

The financial returns of the plays were used to defray debating expenses and to pay for two new stage sets costing $150 each. The dramatics department also bought an upholstered suite, for use in plays and the teachers' rest room.

R. O. T. C.

THE Reserve Officers Training Corps is conducted not with the purpose of feeding the national defense units, but with the sole aim of making good citizens. That many of its members or graduates find their way into the national defense system is only the realization of one of the duties of a citizen. The R. O. T. C. tries to strengthen those qualities which are valuable to good soldiers and equally valuable to good civilians; namely, teamwork, loyalty, courtesy, self-control, self-confidence, neatness, cleanliness, punctuality, truthfulness, physical fitness, alertness, respect for constituted authority, and, one of the most stressed, leadership.

The training is supervised by an officer from the regular army, Lieutenant Howell Harrell, D. O. L., P. M. S. & T. He is assisted at Union by Sergeant Charles A. Clawson, U. S. Army, and cadet officers, Major Arthur E. Bomers, Captain Henry Content, First Lieut. George T. Johnston, and Second Lieut. Raymond Anderson.

The nature of the work covered during the past year included military courtesy, physical training, personal hygiene, first-aid, rifle marksmanship, infantry pack, tent pitching, guard duty and guard mounting, scouting and patrolling, alternated with drill and ceremonies. Third year men also had an interesting course in the making and reading of maps.

The R. O. T. C. was inspected on May 13 by the federal inspector, Colonel Anderson of the U. S. Army.

The fourth annual "Field Day" was held at Houseman Field on June 1. The Union High company received some of the handsome cups and attractive medals offered by the Army and Navy Club for competitive drill.

The Orchestra

THE Union High orchestra has developed very rapidly this year under the skillful leadership of its director, Mr. Theodore F. Fryfogle, who has been the conductor of the orchestra for the past three years.

This spring, the orchestra as well as the choruses and glee clubs, gave a concert in the Union High auditorium. The program given by the orchestra consisted of "Overture Stradella" by Von Flotou, the complete "G Minor Symphony" by Mozart, and several other shorter numbers.

A small group, called the "Theatre Orchestra," made up of members of the orchestra, played for the school plays, "Nothing but the Truth," "The 13th Chair," and "Within the Law."

Many members of the school orchestra were represented in the Symphonia Society which consists of picked members of the orchestras from all the high schools of Grand Rapids. The Symphonia Society played several concerts last winter. One of these was at Central High School where the Union High girls' chorus also took part.

The orchestra spent much time preparing for the State Contest. The required number was "Egmont Overture" by Ludwig Von Beethoven, the free choice number being "Farandole" L'Arlesienne from suite No. 2 by Dvorak. The preliminaries of the contest were held at Kalamazoo and the finals at Lansing.

Union's orchestra lost six players by graduation this year. Although this loss will be felt for a while, this temporary draw back will be remedied by the members of the junior orchestra who will fill their places.

The Band

THE Union band had a very successful year under the leadership of Mr. Theodore ■ F. Fryfogle. The band was made up principally of senior high school students, but also included junior high school students who had shown that they had the ability to play in a band more advanced than the junior one.

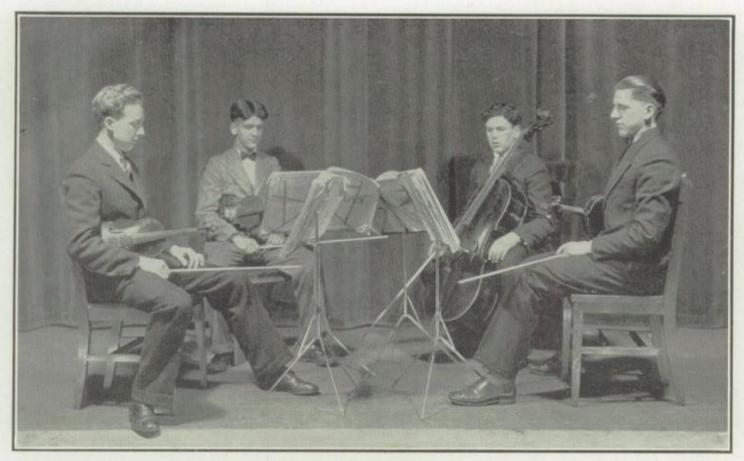

The music studied by the band consisted of marches, and light and standard overtures. Some of the best marches were "Stars and Stripes Forever" by Sousa, "Bombasto" by Farrar, and "Colossus of Columbia" by Alexander. Among the overtures were "Morning, Noon, and Night in Vienna" by F. V. Suppe, "Valse Triste" by Sibelius, and "Pique Dame" by F. V. Suppe.

The band played at all the football games, usually parading at the half or maneuvering with the visiting band. As a civic project it played for the dedication and opening of the new "Lake Michigan Drive." It also played as a part of the Grand Rapids Combined High School Band last fall under the leadership of John Philip

Two small bands made up of members of the senior band played for all the junior and senior assemblies; one directed by Max Udell and the other by Cornelius Bustraan. The senior assembly band also played at all the basketball games held at Union.

The instrumentation of the band was as follows: two flutes, eleven clarinets, seven saxophones, four horns, ten trumpets, seven trombones, four baritones, five basses, four street drums, bass drum, and cymbals. Lester Middleton,'32

The String Quartette

THE string quartette was organized early the second semester under the supervision of Mr. Theodore Fryfogle. Although the group has worked together for a relatively short time, its members have gained a fair degree of skill in interpreting various quartette numbers.

Four rehearsals were held during the week, three after and one before school. The rehearsals followed a plan successfully adopted by the quartette of 1927. Instead of attending each rehearsal, Mr. Fryfogle supervised the work but once a week. In this way the students worked out most of their problems themselves. Although at times the discussions waxed hot, they were invaluable, for when the members finally reached a decision they knew the "why" of the situation and played as a unit. This method of rehearsing was greatly enjoyed.

The string quartette furnished music at the spring concert given at Union, several Rotary Club meetings, Ottawa Hills High School, the Davenport-Mc-Lachlan Institute, the Ladies' West Side Literary Club, the Women's City Club, and school assemblies.

This year the string quartette entered the state musical contest at Kalamazoo along with the glee clubs and orchestra. The required contest number was "Finale" from the Hayden quartette in G Minor Op. 74, No. 3. The free choice number selected was "Nocturne" from the sceond string quartette in D Major by Alexander Borodine. The quartette also worked on numbers in the first, second, and fourth Flonzalay quartette encore albums, and several Hayden quartettes.

The Girls' Double Trio

THE Girls' Double Trio was organized in November under the leadership of Miss Florence C. Best. The trio met three times a week.

The members of the sextette were picked from the Girls' Glee Club and the Mixed Chorus. After many a heart-sinking try-out six voices were finally chosen. The choices made were: Margaret Woolcock, Cornelia Vander Jagt, altos; Alice Smith, Evangeline Wessman, second sopranos; Marian Anderson and Bertha Kuicek, sopranos.

An interesting thing about the double trio is that every class except the sophomores had two representatives. The two girls to be lost through graduation are Bertha Kuieck and Marian Anderson. The other girls will remain in the trio and will provide a splendid background of experience for the members who are to enter next semester.

The girls often displayed their skill when they were included on the school assembly programs. The activities of the sextette were not limited to just the school affairs, for they were often engaged at various P. T. A. meetings and at conventions.

The songs that the Double Trio gave were usually from the great masters, both old and new. Because of the nature of the numbers sung by the girls, Miss Best gave special attention to correct vocalization. This special work was given for the growth of tone quality and volume.

Boys' Glee Club

THE beginning of the school year saw many new members joining the Boys' Glee Club. With the help of old members and the careful directions of Miss Florence Best new members were surprised to see how easy it was to learn to read and sing notes. The Glee Club met in the morning at 7:40 every day except Friday. The first five or ten minutes of each class meeting were used for exercises bettering tone quality.

The purpose of the organization was to get all the boys who sang or wanted to learn how to sing into one group. This training helped them greatly to read notes and sing them as well as strengthen their voices.

The boys sang at many assemblies and functions within the school as well as at outside events. They took part in the Music Festival, January 18, at which they sang "Concordi Laetitia," an old Latin Hymn and "Bring a Torch, Jeanette Isabella," an old French Carol.

The State Music Contest was the high-water mark for which the boys strove with greatest zeal and enthusiasm. It called for much time, patience, and effort on their part, for these numbers were by no means easy. Three weeks before the contest the boys agreed to arrive at 7:30. Dorothy Roh was the accompanist for the Glee Club. The required numbers were, "Lovely Night," by Chwatal, "On the Sea," by Buck, and "The Lamp in the West," by Parker.

The Girls' Glee Club

TOT so many members of the Girls' Glee Club were lost through graduation last June, so Miss Florence C. Best, director, found a group composed of girls of at least one semester's experience.

They met the second hour every day both semesters. The first part of the period was spent in setting-up exercises which proved most valuable in giving freedom and depth of tone.

The glee club sang at several assemblies. At a concert given by the entire music department in January the Girls' Glee Club gave the following two numbers: "Banjo Song," by Homer and "In the Garden," a Neapolitan Folk Song. This group of singers also appeared on the program for the May concert.

Much time was devoted to the pieces required in the State Contest held on April 11 and 12 at Kalamazoo. The three numbers which were required were: "Summer Wind," by Edward MacDowell, "The Loreley," by Liszt, and "Destiny." by Huhn. Other pieces were also studied and found interesting.

In previous years glee clubs were allowed to have only twenty-four members for the State Contest. This year a change in the rules made it possible for all of the girls to participate and profit by the experience, which heretofore only part of the group would enjoy.

This year there were forty-eight girls in the group, all of whom, when appearing in public, wore their new uniforms using the school colors, red and white.

Boys' Double Quartette

THE boys' double quartette was organized in February, under the efficient direction of Miss Florence Best. Rehearsals were held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday the sixth period. Members of the double quartette were Marvin Mol, Harold Hennink, first tenors; Karl Ball, Albert Bereza, second tenors; Tom Hook, Henry Deurloo, baritones; Francis Newton and Don Northedge, basses.

This group was chosen from boys' glee club and represented the finest voices in the group. The object of the organization is to select a small group of boys with unusual ability to do a more finished type of work than is possible in a large group.

Among the songs the boys' double quartette learned were "Boys of the Old Brigade," a Civil War song by Parks; "Marching," by Trotere, also a war song; "Down Mobile," an old southern folk song, and "Those Pals of Ours," a college song by Browne Greaton-Cole.

The boys sang at Straight and Sibley schools, the West Side Ladies' Literary Club, Union Parent Teachers' Association banquet, the Exchange Club and the Rotary Club of this city. The boys furnished songs for the senior play and also took part in the annual Music Festival held at Union on May 7, in addition to entertaining with songs at the school assemblies.

The boys' double quartette was invited to a lovely party at the home of Mrs. William Timmers in appreciation of the songs given by the boys.

The boys developed a high degree of fellowship and accomplished a great deal, they felt.

Only one member of the double quartette will remain at Union next year.

Mixed Chorus

FROM a small, inexperienced group the first semester, the Mixed Chorus so increased the second semester that its membership exceeded that of any preceding year. This group met every day under the direction of Miss Florence C. Best.

This year the most strenuous efforts of the class were spent on several a capella numbers, which are numbers sung unaccompanied. The supervisor of music, Mr. David Mattern, was so pleased with the choice of selections, that he invited the chorus to represent the vocal department of the public schools at a concert given by the Interhigh Orchestra at Central High School in February. The following numbers were sung: "Gloria Patri," "Palestrina," "Alleluia," and "The Rose Tree," by Praetorius.

The chorus also sang unaccompanied at the annual concert given in January and in May.

The three required pieces for the State Contest afforded ample opportunity for meticulous practice. These three compositions were: "Day Spring of Eternity," from the St. Olaf Choir Series by T. Melius Christiansen, director; "Oft in the Stilly Night," Brahms; and "Awake, Sweet Love," from the Elizabethan period, an old English number.

These numbers were repeated for the benefit of Grand Rapids friends at the concert given at Union the second week in May, which had been named officially as Music Week.

Girl Reserves Club

THE Girl Reserves Club of Union High School is part of a world-wide organization for girls of high-school age. Miss Margaret Davery is the secretary of the Girl Reserves of Grand Rapids, and Miss Cynthia Jones and Miss Elizabeth Covell are the advisers of the club at Union High School.

The officers for the first semester were: president, Maxine Hiler; vice-president, Wanda Falarski; secretary, Margaret Suey; treasurer, Genevieve Palma. The results of the second election were: president, Gilleyn De Jonge; vice-president, Isabel Kelly; secretary, Wanda Falarski; treasurer, Mary Molloy.

The meetings were held every second Tuesday of each month. The programs for these meetings consisted of interesting talks by well-known people and the inspections of various Grand Rapids' buildings.

Committees were formed to forward help for the needy during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons, and to entertain at the homes for the Children and the Aged.

The code expressing the ideals by which the girls try to live in their school, home, and social life is:

"As a Girl Reserve I Will Be-

Gracious in manner
Impartial in judgment
Ready for service
Loyal to friends
Reaching toward the best
Earnest in purpose

Seeing the beautiful Eager for knowledge Reverent to God Victorious over self Ever dependable Sincere at all times.

El Club Espanol

EL Club Espanol is composed of students who wish to learn somewhat more of Spanish customs than the regular class work permits. Miss Ruth Carpenter is the adviser.

The officers of the first semester this year were as follows: president, Gerald Vidro; vice-president, Roy Middleton; secretary, Geraldine Koepke, treasurer, Wilma Ver Lee.

A reelection of officers held at the beginning of the second semester, resulted as follows: president, Pauline Rothley; vice-president, Ella Wright, secretary, Bennie Baum; treasurer, Edward Ulanowski.

The meetings were conducted in Spanish, after which followed a program consisting of games, songs or dialogues—with an occasional talk by someone outside the group.

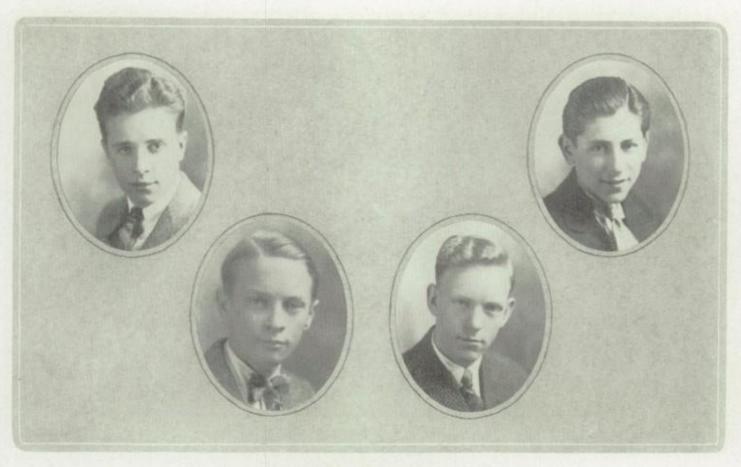

The mid-semester meeting held just before Christmas, was very entertaining. The committee in charge of the meeting arranged for decorations carrying out the Spanish colors of red and yellow. Each class, including Spanish I through IV, gave a stunt, some of them being humorous dialogues; others, Spanish songs. The Spanish IV class gave slides on which were cartoons drawn by Albert Margelis. After the stunts, games were played and refreshments of punch and wafers served.

Later a tennis tournament was held during which Spanish was the only language spoken on the courts.

This year an advanced Spanish class was organized for those who wished to carry on their Spanish but did not have time for a regular full period each day. The class met once a week.

Debating, Oratory, Declamation

DEBATING at Union enjoyed another successful year. The school team composed of John Lane, Benjamin Ragir, Harvey Andree, and Evered Dudley ended the season with a record of five unanimous victories and two 2-1 defeats.

Four of the victories were in State League debates. The other was in a challenged debate with Zeeland High school, second State champions of 1927-1928. The question under discussion proposed a subsidy for our merchant marine.

In the first debate Union was awarded a unanimous decision over Ionia. In the second contest Union visited Muskegon and there lost by a 2-1 vote. The Union team triumphed over Muskegon Heights in the third debate and over Flint Central in the final one of the preliminary series.

With 13 points Union entered the elimination contest, for which among 64 other schools in the state it received a wall placque from the Detroit Free Press.

Union survived the first elimination debate by winning a unanimous verdict over Niles. In a contest between Union and South the latter school was given a 2-1 decision.

Union won second place in all three public speaking contests she entered this spring. Evered Dudley was given second place in the sub-district oratorical contest. He spoke on "Soldiers of Peace."

Barbara Helfenbien with J. M. Thurston's "A Plea for Cuba" won second honors in the declamatory contest. Harvey Andree received second place in the sub-district extemporaneous speaking contest.

The cooperation and aid given by Stanley Albers, instructor of debating and oratory, had much to do with the success of these activities.

The Commerce Club

THE Commerce Club is one of the oldest clubs at Union. Its organization has always been of a very democratic nature, including all students who are enrolled in the commerce department. No dues are required and very seldom are any assessments made upon its members.

The main purpose of the club is to bring its members into contact with the business world in general. This is accomplished by bringing to the club, at various times, speakers who are especially noted by their business experience. Students are thus able to acquire some knowledge and ideas that may be applied in later life.

A fine spirit of cooperation, which extends into after school life, characterizes the club. This tends to foster a feeling of good will and helpfulness. In the matter of placement, which is a strong activity at Union, the club members often assist in helping to secure a location for fellow students by keeping in touch with the teachers or by personal contact with graduates themselves.

The club assumed an active part in thrift and savings. Its members not only attended to making all of the collections but they also compiled the weekly reports. A number of lantern slides, bearing suitable quotations on thrift and savings, were shown at the weekly assemblies.

The officers of the club for this year were: president, Lu Verne Manni; vice-president, John Lane; secretary-treasurer, Eva Barkley; chairman of the program committee, Blanche Cain. Mr. A. J. Avery, head of the commerce department, acted as adviser of the club.

Girl's "U" Club

THE Girls' "U" Club was organized in late October for senior high girls who were interested in athletics. All girls with 75 points were eligible for membership.

The purpose of this club is (1) to create a desire for and an interest in those sports and activities the pursuit of which adds to health and physical efficiency; (2) to promote a spirit of good fellowship among the girls at Union; and (3) to help each girl in her work for a class numera¹, school letter, and all-city honor.

The officers of the association are: Marian Anderson, president; Dorothy Rubrecht, vice-president; Genevieve Palma, treasurer; and, Kathryn Simms, secretary. Miss Marian Campbell and Miss Dorothy Mayne are sponsors of the organization.

Regular meetings were held every other Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. in the girls' gymnasium. Executive board meetings were held on the alternate Tuesdays. The executive board consists of all those girls that have won their honor "U" 's and the officers of the club.

The meetings this year were all "action" meetings. The first meeting after the election of officers was devoted to formal and informal initiation of new members.

An all-senior-high girls' party was sponsored by the Girls' "U" Club in November. Every class presented a comic stunt at this time. Later on in the year the girls were "fed" at a potluck supper, which is always one of their favorite amusements.

New archery equipment was bought with the proceeds of the all school party and this sport was added to the long sport list of the girls. A tennis tournament was run off in May and early June. Golf was also played.

The Union Varsity Club

THE Varsity Club of Union High was organized to stimulate an interest in boys' athletics and to create good sportsmanship. The members are the lettermen of the football, basketball, and track teams. Coach Hess and Mr. Voss are the coadvisers. This is the first year that a club of this type has been organized at Union, but it boasts a membership of twenty.

At the intermission of the second Union-Creston basketball game the Varsity Club entertained the fans by staging a burlesque basketball game. One side was dressed as negroes, and the other as clowns.

After the courtmen received their letters at the close of the basketball season, an initiation program was held in the gym and Maurice Stuart and John Scoby were admitted into the club.

The athletic department has long been debating the advisability of having the same awards for all major sports. Upon the approval of the principal the subject was brought up before the Varsity Club for discussion. It was decided that letters should be the same kind, but of different sizes. The football letter, a nine inch block "U", is to be the largest. An eight and seven inch block "U" will be the award for the basketball and track respectively. It is expected that with the backing of the athletic board, this plan will be carried out in the future.

Officers of the club were: president, Charles Cook; vice-president, Peter Zegunis; secretary, Martin Decker; treasurer, Robert Irwin.

Der Deutsche Verein

"DER Deutsche Verein" is an organization composed of students studying German with Miss Emma Zur Muehlen acting as adviser of the groups. In 1926, German I was placed in the curriculum for the first time since the year of 1918. A club was organized at that time and proved very successful.

The purpose of the club is to cultivate an interest in German customs, literature, music and art and to promote friendship among the students of German.

Club officers this year were: president, Albert Schneider; vice-president, Walter Gehring; secretary-treasurer, Marcella Gudopp; publicity manager, Robert Gotch; program chairman, Bernice Klumpp.

Meetings were held the first and third Wednesday of every month, business and social meetings alternating. German songs were learned and games were played.

Stories and plays, both historical and humorous, were read.

Many members of the club were able to play some musical instrument, so a musical program consisting of selections by great German composers was a feature of the year's programs.

At one of the meetings Miss Emma Zur Meuhlen gave a very interesting talk illustrated with slides about her visit during the summer of 1928 to Berlin, Cologne, Heidleberg and other cities in Germany.

As a "get-to-gether", the club had a "Ausflug" (picnic) at the Towner's cottage Long View Point at Spring Lake. Some made the event a week-end party by camping or staying in the cottage over night. A potluck dinner was served, after which swimming and boating furnished an enjoyable time.

Audubon Club

THE Audubon Club was organized March 11, 1926. The purpose of this club was to study birds and nature and to cultivate a friendliness among the girls through social activities.

Miss Elizabeth Crotser is the adviser of the club. At the semi-annual meeting in January the following officers were elected: president, Lillian Siembab; vice-president and publicity manager, Katherine Korstange; secretary, Florence Toogood; treasurer, Adeline Heaton; program chairman, Delia Koster.

The club joined the National Audubon Society of New York, each member having a button showing membership in this organization. Each year the club has subscribed to "Bird Lore," which is contributed to the library for use by the school.

This year the club had the wood-working department make a feeding house for the birds. When cold weather comes, this will be fastened outside of session room 226 and kept well supplied with food for birds. A fernery, which is to be filled with plants, has also been made and will be placed in the second floor hall next year.

Anti-Tuberculosis seals were purchased at Christmas time. On Thanksgiving day blocks were sent to the children in the Blodgett Home.

During the year the Auduboners enjoyed parties after the meetings, potluck suppers followed by games, and, when the weather permitted, hikes to nearby woods and parks to study nature. At other times the meetings were held in room 226, and interesting papers and discussions were given on birds. During the spring, members answered to roll call with the names of birds learned since the last meeting. At one meeting, Mr. Bazuin gave an interesting talk on birds, illustrating with colored slides. Lillian Siembab,'30

U. H. S. Club

THE U. H. S. Club was organized by members of the Hygiene and Sanitation Classes four years ago. Membership was limited to girls who had taken hygiene and sanitation.

The purpose of the club was to promote, secure, and encourage health, both in the home and in the school.

This past year, due to the fact that Miss Elizabeth Perrin was attending Columbia University, Miss Cogshall led the group in valuable work during the first semester. Upon her return from college Miss Perrin resumed her duties as adviser.

The officers of the club were: president, Teresa Romani; vice-president, Mary Jo Molloy; secretary, Irene Lindberry; treasurer, Genevieve Palma; publicity chairman, Bella Wapner; ring and pin, Grace Ellis; constitution, Sadie Samrick.

Meetings were held every two weeks on Thursday.

During the winter months the club enjoyed many social events including a sleigh ride party. Dr. C. C. Slemmons gave a fine talk on "Communicable Diseases," and a nurse from the Children's Clinic, gave a talk on "Child Hygiene." A committee representing the club attended the lecture on Tuberculosis, by Dr. Sunwall of the University of Michigan.

In April the club sponsored a health debate, and won a health hero trophy. In May the club secured health films which were shown in the auditorium for the assemblies.

In June a "wienie roast" and hike was enjoyed by all the members of the club. The many achievements of this organization can be attributed to the untiring work of its adviser, Miss Elizabeth Perrin, and to the cooperation of officers and members.

The Chemistry Club

THE Chemistry Club, the first organization of its kind, was established in Union High School the second semester of the year just completed. Membership was given to all students, who have taken or are taking chemistry. The main purpose of the club was the advancement of scientific interest among chemistry students and outsiders.

The officers for the past semester were: president, William Rasikas; vice-president, George Drasin; secretary, Wilma Ver Lee; treasurer, Paul Eness. Mr. Keith Kennedy acted as adviser.

The only regular committee was the program committee which was changed every meeting so that every member might have the opportunity to participate. The following are the dates of the meetings, the chairmen, and the experiments performed: March 8, a discussion held on the activities of the club; March 22, burning of hydrogen by Max Druker, chemical volcano by John Kiedis, and electrolitic gas, by Louis Maggini; April 26, the determination of butter fat in milk by Thomas Wittoski, and Goldschmit processo for the extraction of metals from ores by Edward Marek; May 10, activity conducted by Carl Kuenzel; May 24, activity conducted by Fred Russell; June 7, activity conducted by Harold Wait.

The members hope to make the organization an everlasting one by requiring that one office shall be occupied by a junior.

Campfire

"SEEK beauty; give service; pursue knowledge; be trustworthy; hold onto health; glorify work; and be happy." These are the laws of campfire and every campfire girl strives to obey them.

The Deconaweda campfire under the guardianship of Miss Gertrude Brummeler completed its fifth year as a group. It was the oldest active group at Union this year. Its officers were as follows: president, Eleanor Lampert; secretary, Dorothy Phillips; and treasurer, Dorothy Rubrecht. The girls gave a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family, and sewed for the Needle Work Guild. They gave a minstrel show for their annual entertainment at the County Poor House. The J. F. F. Uke Club originated with them. Several potlucks were among the social activities of the year.

The Cafilawawo Campfire group under Miss Florence Parsell, assisted by Lucille Whitford, has been another active group at Union this year. Its officers were: president, Pearl Wesslund; secretary, Alice Kimball; and treasurer, Margaret Willett. The group made a baby layette to give to the Santa Claus Girls at Christmas time, for which the girls received national honors. Last winter the girls held a very successful bob party.

The Icicaga Campfire under the guardianship of Miss Elizabeth De Jonge was a newer group formed at Union this year. The officers were as follows: president, Evelyn Bale; vice president, Mary Allen; secretary, Wilma Shively; treasurer, Bernice Klumpp. The outstanding activities of the year were a program at the West Side Ladies' Literary Club and the presentation of two baskets to poor families during the holidays. The girls also had several business and social gatherings.

The Science Club

THE Science Club was organized last October under the leadership of Mr. Bazuin. It was formed for all those interested in expanding their knowledge of the natural and physical sciences through participation in the activities of a science club.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected: president, Harry Wesslund; vice-president, Francis Newton; secretary, Raymond Anderson; and treasurer, Albert Schneider. To place the club in running order a constitution was drawn up with provision that the membership of the club would be limited to twenty-one.

Due to a wide-awake program committee the meetings, which were held semimonthly, proved very interesting. Generally a speaker was obtained to dicuss subjects relative to the purpose of the club. At one meeting Mr. Frank Du Mond of the city museum gave an illustrated lecture on "Forest Service."

A large number of shells was received by the club and classified. When the weather permitted, a collection of insects was made and also classified. An herbarium was later added to these collections and taken care of by club members.

During Christmas vacation an archery hike was taken on the Sligh golf course by all the budding Robin Hoods. During spring vacation club members were given another chance to bend their bows, this time at Little Pine Island Lake.

Many of the achievements of this organization can be attributed to the untiring efforts of its adviser, Mr. Clayton Bazuin, and the faithful cooperation of its officers and members.

Home Economics Club

THE Union High Home Economics Club was organized in April when the fol-L lowing officers were elected; president, Sadie Samrick; vice-president, Irene Lindberry; secretary-treasurer, Esther Berkowitz. The adviser of the club is Miss Elizabeth Dockeray.

The purpose of this organization is to stimulate interest in the art of home-making, to establish a bond of friendship among the girls taking the same kind of work, to offer an opportunity for the girls in the department, to show the people of the community their activities, to plan for conducted field trips, and to secure as speakers professional people of note as nurses, dietitians, and buyers, who may inform the girls of the opportunities offered by home economics as a profession.

This organization visited the Silk Mills at Belding, the Michigan Agricultural College at East Lansing, and the Shoe Factory at Rockford. The club members gave a tea for all Home Economics Clubs and faculty advisers. They also gave a style show at which they exhibited dresses which they had made during the semester.

Club meetings were held every two weeks, social and business affairs alternating.

The dues were 15c a semester. Additional money was raised by food sales.

Plans for next year's club work are already being discussed and several desirable club projects are being formulated. Elsie Samrick,'29

The Latin Club

THE Latin Club, Societas Latina, organized under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Blake, met the first period every Friday. Each meeting was a step toward stimulating interest in Latin, and studying the life of the ancient Greeks and Romans.

The officers for the first semester were: praesidens, Jeanne Wilson; praesidens secundus, Geraldine Scriptsma; scriba, Mina Becker; quaestor, Jeannette Drever; quaestor secundus, Lester Middleton; program chairman, George Velders; and publicity chairman, Janet Sonneveldt.

The officers for the second semester were: praesidens, Beatrice Main; praesidens secundus, Ida Ferry; scriba, Wynona Wolcott; quaestor, Franc Kingsnorth; program chairman, Ida Ferry; and publicity chairman, Stanley Staskus.

Programs were given by members or by outside speakers. At one meeting Miss Madeline Becker, history teacher, gave an interesting illustrated lecture on Florence and Milan. On March 15, Mr. Frank Du Mond, curator of the city museum, lectured on the ancient Roman, and showed many interesting slides.

A party was held at the last meeting of each semester as a happy ending to the club activities of the year. Stanley Staskus,'32

Literary Contests

THE English department sponsored a story contest in which the first prize was won by Hazel Gotch; second prize, Max Druker; third prize, Victor Matulaitis. Honorable mention was given to Beryl Crawford.

In the drama contest results were as follows: first prize, Max Druker; second, Daniel Vander Werf; third, Irene Koropus; honorable mention, Paul Eness.

Airplane Contest

IRPLANE construction aroused great interest in the wood-working department A this year. In a contest sponsored by the city recreation department the first three places were taken by students who had contructed their planes in Union High School. The first prize was won by Ernest Simpson, '31; the second by Victor Matulaitis, '29; and the third, Michael Bozoian, '29.

The English Art Club

THE English Art Club was organized for the purpose of acquainting its members with the works of art necessary to the thorough interpretation of poetry and prose. It stimulates the appreciation of art and enables the students to recognize the paintings of prominent artists. The past semester, January to June, has been devoted to the study of American Art.

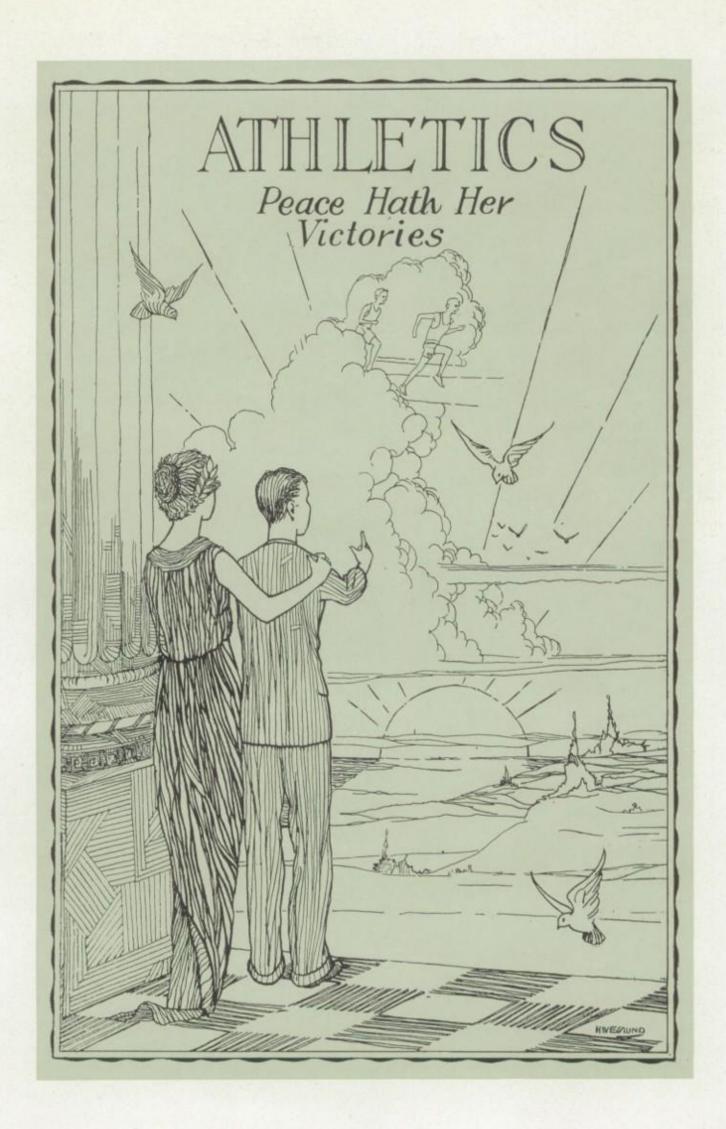

Once a month meetings were held at the Art Association rooms. Mrs. Swarthout, director of the educational work of the Art Association, gave interesting lectures on American artists and art. Illustrating the talks were slides showing pictures and paintings of the artists. In her lectures, Mrs. Swarthout included brief biographical sketches of the artists. One of the most interesting projects was to trace the English and French influence on the modern painters and to follow the recent tendency of artists to paint suggestively rather than completely, thus leaving a great deal to the imagination. At these meetings, the monthly loan displays of paintings, sculpture, and architectural work were discussed, studied, and admired.

Among the social events of the year was a theater party, given January 25. The group attended the matinee, "The Baby Cyclone," at Power's and afterward were taken to dinner at the Y. W. C. A. by Miss Addie Bettes, adviser.

Senior High Basketball

SENIOR high basketball began directly after the finish of a successful hockey season. All girls in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades were urged to come out and try their skill.

The aspirants to the junior and senior teams practiced on Wednesday nights. The juniors practiced from 3:30 to 4:30 and the seniors played from 4:30 to 5:30. Because of their superiority in numbers, the sophomores held their practice night on Friday.

At the January meeting of the Girls' U Club the following team managers were chosen: Althea Calkins, senior; Bernice Kaminski, junior; and Marian Noodleman, sophomore. The squads of each class elected their captain. Wilma Ver Lee was chosen to captain the seniors, Marie Bouwens was picked by the juniors and Alice Kimball received the honor from the sophomore class. Kathryn Simms was chosen to take Marie Bouwens' place when Marie left school.

After the election the captains and managers of each class met with Miss Marian Campbell, coach, to determine the first team and squad.

A tournament was then begun. The winning class would get 200 points toward the cup in the Girls' Interclass Meet. The junior and senior teams effectively wiped the sophomore team from the field of competition giving the sophs third place.

The final game was played at the Girls' Interclass Meet on March 13. The teams were evenly matched but the seniors finally came through the struggle on the pleasant side of the score, 7-4.

Hockey

EARLY in the fall about 75 girls answered the call, that was issued to all senior high school girls to come out for hockey.

The first two nights were spent in learning the fundamentals of the game. The sophomores practiced on Friday nights and the juniors and seniors knocked the ball around on Wednesday nights.

Managers were elected to take care of publicity and to help the captain in her duties. The managers of each class were: Irene Lindberry, senior; Geraldine Koepke, junior; Mary Allen, sophomore.

Flora Thiessen was chosen to act as captain for the seniors, Dorothy Rubrecht was chosen for the juniors and Joan Ver Lee was picked by the sophomores.

Each group was divided into a first team and squad and a second team and squad. The girls making the first team received 100 points toward their athletic honor. The girls in the other divisions received 75, 50 and 25 points respectively.

The first game of the series of games for the title was played by the juniors and seniors. The result was a 1-1 tie. The juniors then played the sophomores and gave them a 1-0 setback. The seniors tried their skill and beat the sophs 2-0.

The title game was played on a cold and blustery day in November between the juniors and seniors. The first half of play resulted in a 1-1 tie. In the second half the seniors warmed up and cleaned up the game with a 3-1 score.

Girls' Interclass Meet

BEFORE a large and enthusiastic crowd the sophomore and senior classes tied for top honors with 1400 points each at the Girls' Annual Interclass Meet held in the Dillingham Memorial gymnasium on March 13. The juniors came in third with 1350 points.

At the January meeting of the Girls' "U" Club class managers were elected: Genevieve Palma, senior. Dorothy Rubrecht, junior; Lillian Harlick, sophomore. These class managers were elected to help Miss Marion Campbell organize the various groups for the events.

Preliminaries were held prior to the meet in the regular gymnasium classes, at which time every girl in the senior high school contributed some part to the score. At the preliminaries the sophomores took first place, with the juniors second and the seniors third. All girls making thirty-five points or more in the preliminaries were entered into the annual meet.

The main feature of the meet was the basketball game between the juniors and the seniors. This was the first time in a number of years that girls' basketball has been played for exhibition. After a close and exciting game the seniors emerged victorious on the safe side of the score 7-4.

The seniors carried away first place in rhythm and basketball. They came in second for hop-step and jump and hurdles and placed third in baton relay.

The sophomores also kept two top positions, one in hurdles and the other in hop-step and jump. The baton relay was the only first place the juniors took. In basketball they won second position. In all other events they placed third.

Miss Blanche Mann, assistant principal, presented the loving cup to the winning classes. Mr. Fred Voss was the official announcer of the evening.

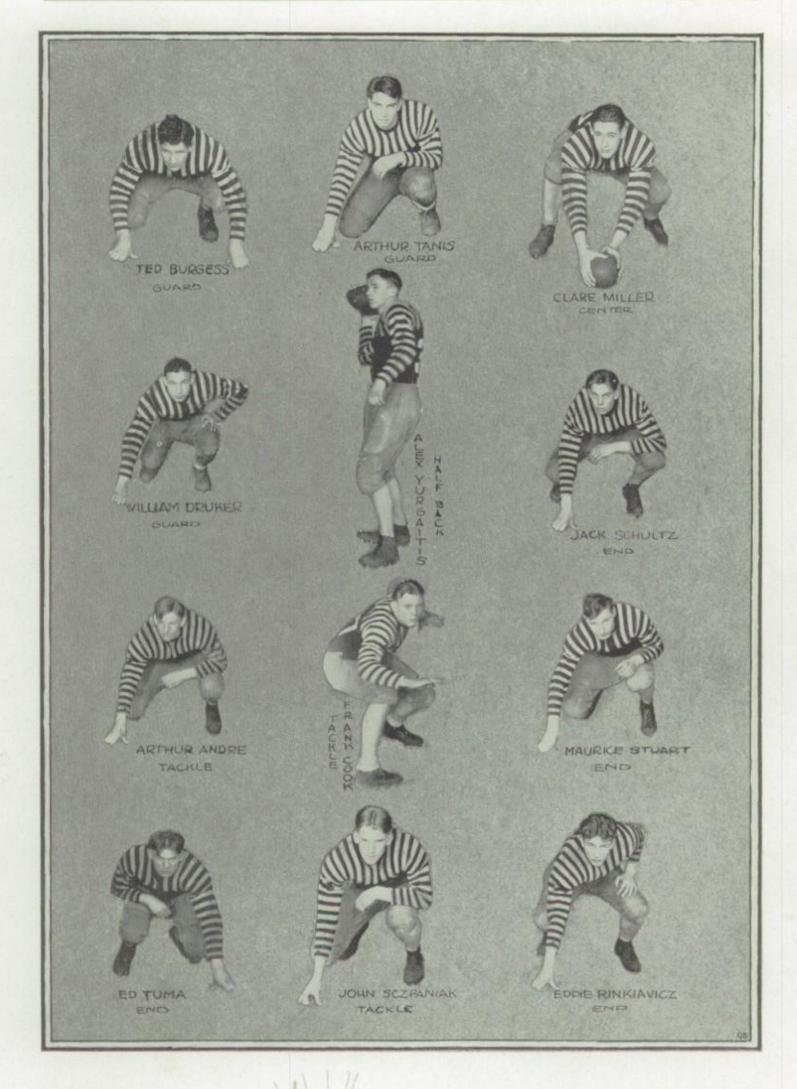

Between the events flowers were presented to Miss Marion Campbell and Miss Dorothy Mayne.

LET PEACE DAWN

Football

A TOUGH ten game schedule faced Coach Hess and his gridders as the 1928 football season opened. Among those that returned from the '27 squad only five were veterans.

The Hessmen started off the season in good form by running wild over Rockford and Lowell but Creston's veteran eleven was a hard nut to crack, the score being 6-6 after four quarters of heartbreaking football. Both touchdowns were the result of well executed forward passes.

When Kalamazoo Central came to Grand Rapids to encounter the Hessmen, Captain Charley Cook, who was sick in bed, arose to play his last football game for Union High, as the age limit was about to declare him ineligible. Charley was unable to play up to his usual standard, but his gameness did much to inspire the team. Bob Irwin acted as captain for the remaining part of the season.

The Union-Muskegon game was a battle not to be forgotten. After a 26-6 score at the half, a fighting Union eleven succeeded in scoring fourteen points in the second half while the Muskies were held scoreless. The Hessmen displayed such a deceptive aerial attack that Muskegon was helpless. Of twenty-four passes attempted, Union completed eighteen. The final gun found Union going strong but they could not overcome the lead that the Muskies obtained early in the first half, the final score being 26-20.

Had it not been for a freak safety Union would have been city champions. When Union played Catholic Central, Pete Zegunis, while punting, stepped out of bounds, thus awarding the Parochials a safety or two points. This gift enabled the Catholics to win by an 8-7 margin.

South High was crowned the city champions on a percentage basis although the Hessmen, in the final game of the season gave them a decisive 12-0 beating.

Undoubtedly Union was at its best when South was encountered on Thanksgiving Day. The first half was played on equal terms, but in the last two periods Union resorted to a line smashing attack, under which South weakened.

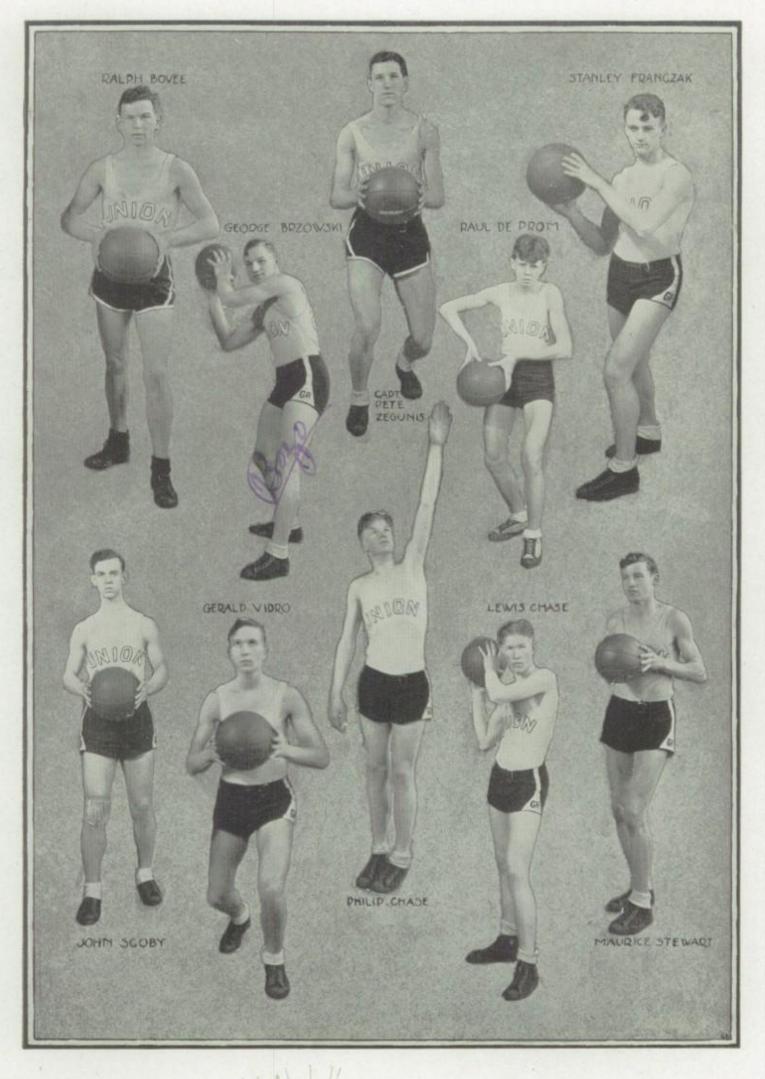

Pete Zegunis was given an end position on the all city eleven which was chosen at the end of the season. Frank Cook, Stan Franczak, Ralph Bovee, George Brzowski, Bob Irwin and Art Tanis, were placed on the second team.

Those that are returning next year are: Captain-elect Brzowski, Frank Cook, Tanis, Burgess, Falicki, Piechocki, Dauksza, and Walker.

Basketball-1928-1929

WHEN the basketball season opened Coach Hess was without the service of Imhoff, Barr, and Cook, three of the mainstays of the preceding year, but in their stead were Zegunis, Bovee, Vidro, Brzowski, Frank Cook, Stuart, Scoby, De Prom, Lew and Phil Chase, from which the Union mentor had to chose a team.

The earlier part of the season was spent in experimenting to find a satisfactory combination. Then after the team became organized Ralph Bovee became ineligible by the ninth semester ruling but he was ably replaced by Stan Franczak, who had been laid up with an injury sustained in football.

The Union quint started rather slowly but after they once hit their stride they were hard to stop.

When South was encountered during the earlier part of the schedule, Union went down to defeat 26-23 in a close game but when the Hessmen played South in the return game in the Dillingham Memorial gym, it was a different story, Union winning by a 26-13 margin. Stuart and Franczak, in a third quarter scoring spree, helped to put the game on ice.

A fast-moving Battle Creek five came to Grand Rapids with a determination to wallop the Union tossers. In the first half the Crickets made the Unionites look foolish by scoring at will, the count at the intermission being 16-11 with Union at the short end. The third period found a new Union team on the floor. They seemed to have new vigor for never before did a Union quint stage such a comeback. The Union guards, Zegunis and Brzowski, smothered the Battle Creek forwards while Chase and Franczak slipped through their opponents defense to make shot after shot. The score was soon tied at sixteen all, but the Hessmen didn't stop until the final gun sounded, when they emerged victorious, 32-22.

Twice did the Central five go down to defeat before the Red and White tossers. The first encounter was hotly contested, the game ending 15-14. In the return game at the Union gym the Unionites had no trouble at all in trouncing the Hilltoppers 23-10.

The Catholic Central basketeers also suffered two defeats at the hands of Union. The first encounter ended 26-14. In the second game a fourth quarter Parochial rally almost proved fatal to Union. The west siders were fortunate, however, and succeeded in winning 19-18.

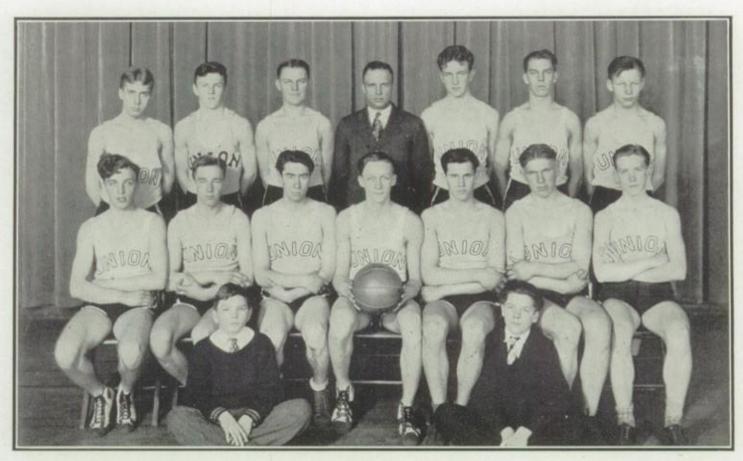

In one of the most spectacular games of the season Union went down to defeat before Muskegon. After leading for most of the game, the Union cagers lost out in the closing minutes of play when a Muskegon forward made three field goals in rapid succession, thus putting the Muskies ahead as the game ended.

Although Creston was crowned the city champions, Union gave them a 23-14 beating, the most decisive defeat suffered by the Polar Bears during the season.

In the Regional Tournament held at the East Grand Rapids gym, the Central quint again bowed to the Hessmen 23-19. The second round of play found Union matched with the vengeance seeking Creston team. The lead changed continually, no more than three points separating them at any time. In the third period Union had a 19-17 advantage but a strong finish found the Polar Bears ahead 26-25.

Reserve Basketball

THE Reserves, under the supervision of Assistant Coach Mattice enjoyed a very successful season. Out of thirteen games played, only two were lost, these being to Ottawa Hills and Creston.

With only a few veterans to work with, Coach Mattice molded into shape a fast moving team that worked like a clock throughout the season. It performed best with "Chuck" Soet at center, Yurgaitis and Postmus, forwards, and Tuma and Broekema, guards. Adams also saw service with the regulars.

The two defeats, which were both suffered early in the season were avenged later, for in the second game with Ottawa the Reserves succeeded in downing the Indians, 14-6, and in the second battle against Creston the northenders were beaten 20-13.

The best game of the season was the defeating of the powerful Muskies when Union traveled to the Sawdust City. At the end of the first half the score was 8-8, but in the final quarter Union secured a two point lead and by clever stalling managed to emerge at the long end of a 20-18 score.

Track

NOT very much interest was shown toward track until it became a major sport. As a result, Coach Hess had only a few experienced men to work with when the season opened.

A series of triangular mee's were held in which all of the high schools of the city took part. These meets helped to stimulate more interest in track as it gave the thin-clads something to work for.

Union had four men who could be relied upon at all times. They were: Max Udell, pole vaulter; Lee Dyer, high jumper; Lloyd Hughes, hurdler; and Lenny Rossman, half miler. Udell met defeat only once, that being in the State meet.

At the close of the season a district meet took place in Grand Rapids. All those who placed in this meet were allowed to enter in the state meet which was held at East Lansing. Union succeeded in entering eleven men.

Mr. Voss organized a junior track squad, which was divided into two session room teams. As the season was about to close a meet was held and the enthusiastic juniors put forth their best efforts. Probably some of these youngsters will be of some use to Coach Hess in the future.

Now that track has been revived again it is hoped that this sport will soon be ranked on par with the other major sports, football and basketball.

First row: Gerald Vidro, Milton Davidson, Harry Datema, Robert Kortlander, Walter Godlewski. Second row: Wesley Blasen, Louis Chase, F. C. Bailey (coach), Phillip Chase, Julian Kempski.

Tennis

AT the beginning of the 1928 tennis season a club was formed to create and expand an interest in tennis. The officers were: chairman, Milton Davidson; secretary and treasurer, Gerald Vidro. From this club and the round-robin school tournament a team was formed to represent Union in contest with other schools.

The team was made up of the following players: No. 1—Robert Kortlander; No. 2—Harry Datema; No. 3— Milton Davidson; No. 4— Gerald Vidro; No. 5—Wesley Blasen; No. 6—Walter Godlewski; No. 7—Phillip Chase; No. 8—Lewis Chase; Substitute—Julian Kempski.

As this was the first year that tennis has been organized to any extent at Union, the team made a fair showing in the season's schedule. Vidro stood highest on the team, winning 5 out of 7 matches. Davidson was second with 5 out of 8, Datema was third with 4 out of 8, and Kortlander, who started out number three, won his first three matches but ran into harder competition after working himself into No. 1 position.

The bright spot in the schedule was the winning of an inter-city match with Lansing Central, 3 to 1.

With the entire team back, many new players, and a faculty coach and adviser, the team should accomplish much. The faculty coach and adviser for the season of 1929 is Fred C. Bailey.

Adolph Grigas, Peter Zegunis, Mr. Mattice, adviser; Roy Veenstra, Martin Decker.

Golf

THE Union golf team, the first in the history of the school, was indeed a great success.

Although golf has not had an active part in athletics among the high schools, Union was very fortunate in having a few ex-caddies who knew the fine points of the game.

There were so many that desired to make the team that it was necessary for an elimination tournament to be held in order to single out the four best in the school, as the golf team was to be composed of only four members. Mr. Mattice acted as manager of the team.

The district tournament was held at the Pontaluna Country Club of Muskegon. The Union team succeeded in winning the tournament mainly through the efforts of Pete Zegunis who was low medalist with a card of 80. The course was rather difficult, par being 76.

The State tournament, in which the Union team also entered, took place at the Washtenaw Country Club of Ypsilanti. Union placed sixth, as the competition was keen, some of the best golfers in the state taking part. Nevertheless the Union team had an interesting time. Mr. Mattice accompanied them on the trip.

Besides the District and State tournaments a regular schedule was followed in which Union, Central, Ottawa, Creston, and Catholic Central took part. All of the matches were played on the Sligh golf course. Union handily annexed the city crown, winning all of the matches but one, this being a tie with Ottawa Hills.

First row: Marie Wolfe, Mary Henry, Barbara Helfenbein, Marian Noodleman, Pearl Wesslund, Marion Timmers, Lillian Richardson. Second row: Gertrude Leiviska, Aleda Mollein, Ethelyn Johnson, Anita Caminer, Miss Campbell, Lillian Harlick, Alice Kimball, Vilma Losey.

The Volley Ball Tournament

THE volley ball season this year was brimful of vim, vigor, and vitality. It opened in December with weekly practices before school. After a few weeks of practice, class teams were chosen in preparation for the volley ball tournament. Any high school girl was eligible for her class team, but ability and sportsmanship as well as attendance at practice were taken into consideration when the teams were chosen.

The tournament was held the latter part of January. Each class chose a first team and a first squad, the player of exceptional merit being placed on the first team.

In the series of these games much friendly rivalry was shown. The results gave the sophomores the championship. They defeated the juniors with a score of 32 to 21 and the seniors with a score of 36 to 28. In the game between the juniors and seniors, the juniors won with a score of 33 to 21.

The members of the sophomore team were: Pearl Wesslund, Marian Noodleman, Gertrude Leiviska, Mary Henry, Alice Kimball, Anita Caminer, Ethelyn Johnson, Velma Losey, Marie Wolfe, Eleanor Crandall, Barbara Helfenbein, Lillian Harlick, Marian Timmers, Lillian Richardson.

The members of the sophomore squad were: Gertrude Rasho, Aleda Mollein, and Mary Kozawala.

It is hoped that the winning team will work just as hard in the future and will meet with the same success.

Marian Noodleman, '31

First row: Dorothy La Gran, Minnea Zindel, Aleatha Sherwood, Jeanne Henderson, Genevieve Williamson, Ruth Mollein. Second row: Aileen Meyers, Elfrieda Bothie, Margaret Woodstra, Miss Mayne, Elizabeth Grubliski, Doris Esveld, Gertrude Peterson.

Junior High Volley Ball

IN 1928 volley ball was chosen as the after school game for the fall season. The purpose of the volley ball team was to give each girl an opportunity to develop to a greater extent than is possible in class the qualities of sportmanship, leadership, and cooperation. Each girl was given a chance to make the first or second team, depending on her ability to play the game, her sportsmanship and attendance at practice.

The girls on the seventh grade first team were as follows: Aleatha Sherwood, captain; Dorothy Le Gran, Elfrieda Bothie, Elizabeth Grubliski, Aileen Meyers, Doris Esveld, Minnea Zindel, Jeanne Henderson, Eileen Ghysels, Bertha Peterson, and Margaret Wandstra.

The seventh grade first team often practiced against the seventh grade first squad. The seventh grade practiced on Thursdays at 3:20 p. m. with Miss Dorothy Mayne as coach. After three and one-half months of hard practice, the seventh, eighth and ninth grades were prepared for the volley ball tournament which was held December 11 and 18. The scores of the tournament were as follows:

$First\ Game,\ L$	December 11
Seventh grade first team10	Eighth grade first team 9
Second Game,	December 11
Seventh grade first squad	Eighth grade first squad20
Third Game,	December 12

First row: Edna Ylisela, Leona Reynolds, Ruby Johnson, Jennie Borkowski, Helen Mahlebashian. Second row: Josephine Poggi, Violet Malinowski, Miss Mayne, Adeline Koben, Dorothy Esveld.

Junior High 9-Court-Basketball

LAST year the junior high girls played 9-court-basketball one night of every week with Miss Dorothy Mayne as coach. They did not have a tournament.

This year all the girls in the junior high, who wanted to, came out every Tuesday, either before or after school with Miss Dorothy Mayne again acting as coach.

After the girls had practised for a few months, Miss Mayne divided them into two teams for each grade, that is, a first and second team for grades seven, eight, and nine.

The ninth-grade first team elected Marian Devereaux as their captain; and the eighth-grade first team, Ruby Johnson. The ninth-grade second team elected Irene Owczarzak, and the eighth-grade second team elected Rose Marie Babola.

On February 5 the girls held a tournament in the girls' gymnasium, the ninth grade against the eighth grade. The eighth-grade first team won with a score of 14 to 5. The ninth-grade second team won 7 to 3.

The eighth-grade first team consisted of Leona Reynolds, Edna Ylisela, Helen Mahlebashian, Violet Malinowski, Katherine Wagner, Dorothy Esveld, Adeline Koben, Ruby Johnson (captain), Jennie Borkowski, Josephine Poggi, Anna Wolosescki.

The ninth-grade first team consisted of Helen Leviski, Lena Romani, Mary Vern Porter, Margaret Simms, Frances Moss, Marian Devereaux (captain), Jean Liberman, Alice Zmudka, Marion Smith, Grace Goodell.

Ruby Johnson,'33

T. D. S. Club

THE T.D.S. was formed to help girls of the junior high school earn their athletic awards and to stimulate an interest in interclass activities among them.

The name, T. D. S., stands for the triangle, diamond and star, the three awards given to the girls; the first for the seventh grade; the second for the eighth grade; and the last for the ninth grade.

Meetings were held at 3:30 p. m. every other Monday in the girls' gymnasium. Special meetings were called on alternate Mondays if they were found necessary. Dorothy Rubrecht, vice president of the Girls' "U" Club, spoke to the club at one of its first meetings on "The Value of an Athletic Club."

One day in the early spring, club members packed their lunches and hiked to Indian Creek where they had their supper. Numerous other hikes were also taken, and, added to this, swimming and roller skating parties were held at the Y. W. C. A.

The officers of the club were as follows: president, Lena Romani; vice-president, Marian Devereaux; secretary, Sarah Allen; treasurer, Elsie Romanko.

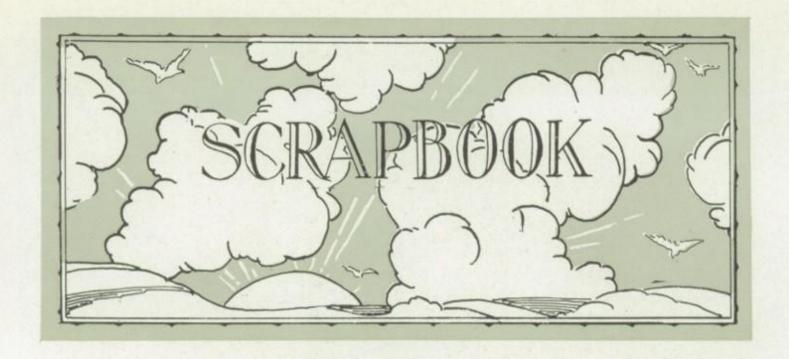

Committee chairman were: program, Helen Leiviska; activity, Dorothy Esveld, who checked up on the health charts that the girls handed in and also the points given to the girls on the various teams; publicity, Alice Zmudka. The advisers were Miss Dorothy Mayne and Miss Marian Campbell.

The T. D. S. aims to develop a spirit of cooperation and good fellowship among the girls, and a lasting desire for sport and physical activities of all kinds.

8—Union vies with South in track on the latters new field.

9—Some one thought of the splendid (?) idea of having Open School in the evening, so our fond parents could view their charges in action.
We suffer, and how!

10—The juniors cash in with a party for the seniors, or in other terms, the Junior-Senior party.

15—Scrambled eggs and hash. (The last minute rush for senior play tickets).

16—The big night: "The Crisis."
Harvey woos Wilma in the senior play.

17—Harvey again woos Wilma.

18—Is Harvey still wooing Wilma?

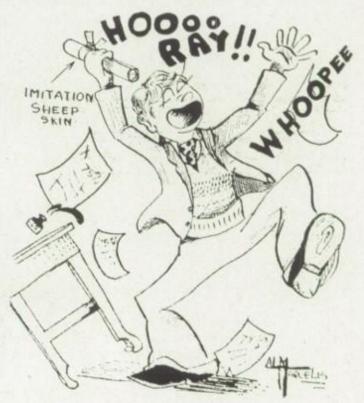

- 21—What is this I see before me? Food!! "The Unionite" staffs of '29 and '30 enjoy their two favorite sports, eating and eating.
- 24—The Household Arts club inspects Lansing.
- 24—The sophs and freshies get reckless and have a party.
- 29—Polly Rothley reaches for a cough drop and says, "Dough, I habent god a cowd id by ed."

JUNE

As we have no crystal globe, no knowledge of the art of reading cards or tea grounds, we trust you will pardon the following information—if not authentic.

- 1—Ah, those roses. At least we think a few will be out.
- 6-7—All the bright students get their awards in the assemblies on these dates.
- 7—Some illustrious seniors discourse on Fragments, oh pardon, on Peace.
- 10—Get your fountain pens filled—the rush for "sigs" in "The Aurora" starts.
- 14—Exams start. Seniors are excused if their work is up to par. Note:

What every senior feels like doing after Commencement Day.

Seniors take exams, that is most of them.

- 19—We go to bed feeling all funny inside and thinking of the next evening when—
- 20—We stand at the open threshold of the world. Graduation—good luck—good bye.

LAST LEGAL DOCUMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

Little children of Ham (alias the Junior Class) gather unto the fold, as that great and illustrious epistle of the class of 1929, the Will, is being read and accepted for you.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

To the wee tots who are now to wrap about themselves that august cloak of dignity and sagacity which the class of '29 has so long worn without a wrinkle, we dedicate this last will and "test"-a-ment of the renowned, glorious and distinguished Class of this year's new Ford, one thousand nine hundred and twentynine.

Little Innocents, we do not expect you to comprehend to what heights of glory you are being moved by our esteemed evacuation of this great institution of learning. We would stay longer to help you and guide you if we could, but we realize that you will have to plunge into the realm of reality soon, and it might just as well be next year (hence our great and noble sacrifice). So you must now leave behind forever your paper dolls and candy sticks and assume the role of good judgment and mental elevation, which for some queer reason our good friends the faculty believe you can acquire during one summer vacation.

If you will tuck in your bibs for another paragraph, I will give you some don'ts for your oncoming maturity.

1st. Don't give these excuses to your session room teachers when you come late; their patent ran out five years: "I had to wait for a train", "The streetcar was late". You are insulting the intelligence of your teacher by springing such simple alibis.

2nd. Try to overcome the wanderlust Keithward on Friday afternoons when you don't know your English lessons. Remember that, though you escape roll-call, among the Lowly you won't find your "calling", either.

3rd. Do not get into the habit of coupling up. Remember that you are here to seek knowledge, not matrimonial possibilities.

4th. Follow all of this advice of our own making, and you shall dwell in the realm of innocent bliss forever.

Therefore we, the Greatest class (we believe) to have ever had the pleasure of having been graduated with all due honor, desire to make our last will. In regards thereof we bequeath to the Senior Class the right to pay their dues before the annual Junior-Senior party, as it will not involve any great expense for them (fortunately) in 1930.

Young People

Habits are the foundation of life. If you would in the later years ease and comfort, then cultivate the habit of thrift while you are still young.

Business men are looking for young men who have formed this habit and know how to conduct their personal affairs at a profit and have a growing bank account.

Let this friendly bank be your silent partner. We are ready at all times to help you succeed.

BURTT'S Chicken Dinners

F YOU are planning a party come out to Burtt's Place, two miles north of Comstock Park on the River Road.

You will be delighted with our Chicken Dinners and the pleasant surroundings.

Plenty of room to dance and enjoy yourselves.

For Appointment Phone 85843

Sunlight Dances.

To all fair-haired beauties we dedicate with great pleasure that famous formula of Marian Anderson, an important reason why gentlemen prefer blonds.

To "Pete" Keller and "Al" Batts we bequeath Harry Wesslund's girl shyness.

To Don Cederlund we leave Glen Handlin's famous book entitled "Why I am a Highbrow."

To Bob Kortlander and Shelby Whiton we leave Robert Andree's job of caring for and supervising the Class morals.

To Gert Peterson we leave Hazel Gotch's "hero-worship". (It's T. N. T. Use with caution, Gert.)

To Jean Handlin we dedicate a fresh supply of "admits" for unexcused absences.

To Helen De Hamer we intrust the responsibility of sitting all alone at table 7 in room 331.

To Ann and Bernice Kaminski we leave the example of "sisterly devotion" that is so marked in Anne Soet and Connie Sedor.

To Edith Saunders and Ann Gallmeyer we give first right to the titles of "class sharks."

To Dorothy Rubrecht and Harry Hardenburg we leave the grey hairs and wrinkles that are so easily acquired in watching out for that unruly infant, "The Unionite."

To Benny Ragir we leave undisputed title to "Union's Patrick Henry" (new model 1930 editon to Hall of Fame).

To Bozo we leave the upkeep of the Library and the keep-up of the football team (Pursuit of knowledge and pursuit of the Pigskin should go hand-in-hand, Bozo).

To all the rest of you we impart this last advice. Take care of the innocent freshmen, try to be patient with the Sophomores, (remember you're only young once) and see that the Juniors are always polite to their elders.

BEANIEOLOGY

*Foot-note. Some wise guy with gobs of "eat'em alive" in him decided that it was high time around Union to check up on Ancestors. After devoting one golden hour, studded with sixty diamond seconds, (same as mentioned on 225 session-room board), to this great cause he is ready to give to humanity results of his great research. He finds that—

(Consult Encyclopydia Britanica)
Wilma Ver Lee's Sirens
Aaron Musser's . . You guessed it!
John Lane's "Ladies and Gentlemen"

Walter Godlewski's . . . (Whoa! We meant lawyers, of course) Seymour Ver Hey's . . . Pygmies

We are very sorry to say that the energetic young person who so willingly gave his time and ability to this task could not get all the ancestors of all of us, but you know we're all brothers and sisters beneath the skin anyway.

LOST AND FOUND

Richard Vander Zwart, who spent last summer leaping dikes in Holland, was discovered the other day handing in a toothpick. He has been informed that he will be awarded the property if it is not claimed within thirty days. "Dick" has decided to request no reward.

THINGS WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

"What became of the wad of gum in Abraham Lincoln's hand?"

"Why Hazel Gotch was always seen in the library the seventh hour?"

Graduation--Then What?

Will it be "Finis" or will it be "Commencement?" Whatever the future may hold, your education may be continued if you take advantage of the opportunities offered.

The daily newspaper is youth's most modern text book --- modern because it is revised, rebuilt, rejuvenated every day.

A careful reading each day will enable you to keep abreast of the times and make Graduation day a true Commencement day.

- of course you'll read

The Grand Rapids Press

A Newspaper for The Whole Family

Graduates You've proved your mettle

---It's meant a lot of hard work, we know

---much sacrifice to reach this important goal in life.

---and now that you've proved your mettle we want to congratulate you. May it be only the begining for you for still greater and finer things.

We wish it to you - every one of us here at

Lost—A small note of little consequence save to owner. Return to Mr. Martin Decker, session room 228.

(Is this the note, Mart?)

My Dear One:

Do you doubt the earnestness of my simple words spoken last night? I beg of you, don't. I could not bear it. Have faith in me, for my feelings are genuine. Reveal your regards toward me, for I no longer can play my part in this unspoken drama. Life holds nothing when there are no hopes from you. Please, please, just smile and say 'hello' the time when next we meet.

Thine, ever thine, as always, (Who says the new lost-and-found system isn't doing its duty?)
